

Planet 51 Film and Planet 51 Toys for Boys or Girls - Lem, Chuck and the Mini Military ATV

Toys as far as the eye can see, you probably see different toys at the stores.

Thousands upon thousands of presents.

You are probably up to your ears in holiday shopping for your little boy or girl or some other boy or girl on your list of shopping.

You may not know what is the in toy right now.

But this can easily be fixed by one new motion picture that has been released.

Planet 51, which is a terrific tale for kids to view, has had several Planet 51 toys that have been issued already, and there is more to come.

The Planet 51 movie begins like most of the 1950s era science fiction motion pictures.

You see a boy and girl alien from the Planet 51 sitting in a drive in enjoying a motion picture, when all of a sudden an alien shows up.

This {alien|Martian}stranger is known by the Planet 51 habitants as the Humaniacs and its mission is to mission the life on Planet 51 or to transform the Planet 51 people into zombies.

The humaniac stalks the Planet 51 boy and girl and leads you to believe it either believe them or believe them into zombies.

At the height of this part of the Planet 51 movie you find that what you are actually seeing on screen is a movie and a little boy is sitting in the theater watching it, until his mother pulls him out of the theater.

Then the real Planet 51 movie moves forward and we then are introduced to Lem, a awkward teenager who finally just got the job of his dreams at the museum.

Lem is awarded with an assistant curator job and the entire town goes about cheering for the boy.

Lem then discovers the girl of his desires Nessa.

Nessa is all things to Lem and he has liked her for a long time.

Lem now has added confidence with his job so he decides to ask her out but her very hippy pal keeps interrupting her.

Lem gives up and leaves.

Later on that day the occupants of Planet 51 hear a loud noise.

Lem, as most residents come from Planet 51 out from their residences.

Lem sees a odd rocket, which they refer to as a flying saucer, ming down and land land on Planet 51.

It lands and out comes Chuck the astronaut (from Earth, you can tell, because he seems extremely human).

Chuck is unknowing of the Planet 51 habitants are there behind him.

Chuck exits his lunar module and after putting the flag on Planet 51 soil putting on a rubber ducky.

Chuck does not know know Planet 51 has people on it.

He sees the Planet 51 aliens and shrieks.

Chuck rushes around and hides.

During one part Chuck is trying to get away and stumbles and behind him you see the moon.

Chuck soars up over the moon.

This is an acknowleddgement of the motion picture ET the extraterrestrial.

Chuck goes into hiding and then the military appears up encircling Chuck's rocket.

The military is led by General Grawl who does not want any Martians to invade his Planet 51 and he has no wish to be turned into a zombie.

General Grawl arranges his military an the Military ATV's around the rocket and chooses} to set base.

Lem's residence is his choice.

There is only one dilemma, Lem has now made pals with Chuck agreeing to cover him.

Chuck and Lem had crashed into one another at the museum and frightened one another half to death.

Chuck made Lem feel poorly for him so Lem decided to assist Chuck.

When they learn that General Grawl is going to create his base at Lem's residence Chuck and Lem flee, hardly from the soldiers with their Military ATV.

Chuck and Lem with the aid of from Rover and two zombie soldiers hide|cover|conceal Chuck in the comic book store.

They choose to use the media to prove Chuck is not a zombie driven, Planet 51 inhabitant eater or a freak.

Lem goes to find the media but while he is out Chuck quotes scenes from Star Wars and Terminator.

Chuck is seen by the newsman who films and plays this tale all over Planet 51, frightening the residents even more.

Chuck and Lem finally flee from this situation and later on that night at a costume party everything is going good.

Everyone chooses to dress up as Chuck the astronaut.

What a opportune time for Chuck to run back to his space craft and space craft Planet 51.

It of course space craft.

Chuck is seen being a bit taller than the other aliens and his Flag on the side of his costume is a hint that sets out Chuck clearly from the Planet 51 residents .

General Grawl along with the professor stalk them with the Military ATVs and finally capture Chuck and Lem.

Lem is permitted to go while Chuck and Rover are detained somewhere else.

You then see military ATV's rolling up to help move the Rocket of Chuck.

General Grawl says that the flying saucer will be transported with the Military ATV and held at an unknown place hidden on Planet 51.

You soon enough get to know about Base 9 which is a secret base.

Lem decides that he is not going to aid Chuck at first but then he changes his mind.

He and the rest of the gang including Nessa and her groovy hippy friend all come to aid Chuck.

Lem and pals succeed in freeing Chuck and getting him back to his rocket.

When leaving Base 9 starts to explode and Chuck revisits to revisits General Grawl.

This alters General Grawls mind about Chuck.

He returns them all back to their Planet 51 and Chuck mind home.

It is then revealed that Chuck has a concealed dog from Planet 51 aboard.

Makes you curious about what Chuck does when he uncovers the canine.

This Planet 51 is terrific, and with this lovely motion picture what better way to celebrate it than to get some of the Planet 51 movie toys that come out with this funny motion picture.

Your boy or girl will adore these Planet 51 movie toys.

You can do a search online for Planet 51 toys and locate many to choose from from.

One great toy you can choose is the Mini Military ATV .

This Planet 51 toy is sure to make any boy or girl smile and add hours of enjoyment to any boy or girls home.

These Mini Military ATV will add hours of enjoyment for your kids and allow them to remake many fun scenes.

Like the Planet 51 movie scene where the Military ATV's drive up the initial time to see Chuck's spaceship or the time when they go to steal it.

Your drive can also have their Military ATV to go on new missions.

You can do also online and search for other Planet 51 toys, like the 3 inch figures Chuck, Lem, the Mini Bump and Go Rover and the 3 inch soldier figurines.

These toy soldiers are total replicas of the aliens of Planet 51.

Then, as mentioned before, you may select to add the mini vehicle figure 2 pack Military truck and tank toy.

The military tank and truck toys are very well made and very strong.

The toys appear to be just like the ones that are used in the Planet 51 movie.

Remember when searching that the Planet 51 toys are fairly new and can be very troublesome to find, and may be even out of stock already, but once you discover one you should discover them all.

As you may already have guessed, one Planet 51 toys will not suffice for your child, and you may need to add a few other Planet 51 movie toys to start the collection.

His/Her Birthday may be close too and you will already have an idea on what gift to select, Guess what? Another few Planet 51 movie toys!

These toys are fairly educational Planet 51 toys and will add hours of playtime for your boy or girl.

Have a good time enjoying the new Planet 51 toys.

About the Author

Product Reviews Group - Click here for Product Reviews

Source: <http://www.articlegods.com>